The Institute

The Biomedical Research Institute of Lleida, Dr. Pifarré Foundation (IRBLleida) was created with the aim of creating synergies between basic, clinical and epidemiological research, making biomedical research a key driver to improve current clinical practice. IRBLleida covers a chain of translational research, from basic research, aimed at understanding the physiological and pathological mechanisms of the human body, to research that studies the behavior of diseases in large population groups.

CERCA Centres de Recerca de Catalunya

IRBLleida has been a CERCA institute since 2013, and consequently it is organized according to a model of good governance and functioning that guarantees

efficiency, flexibility of management, recruitment and promotion of talent, strategic planning and executive capacity.

In addition, it is one of the 36 Spanish Health Research Institutes (IIS) recognized by the Carlos III Health Institute and the Government of the Generalitat, as established in Law 16/2003, of 28 May, on the cohesion and quality of the national health system.

In December 2014, the Institute for Research in Biomedicine of Lleida received the 'HR Excellence in Research' award from the European Commission. This is a recognition of the Institute's commitment to developing a strategy of human resources for researchers, designed to align practices and procedures with the principles of the European Charter for Researchers and the Code of Conduct for the recruitment of researchers (Charter and Code).

Identity: BIOMEDICAL RESEARCH INSTITUTE OF LLEIDA

CIF: G25314394

Postal address: Av. Alcalde Rovira Roure nº80, 25198, Lleida E-mail: protecciodedades@irblleida.cat

Purpose of data processing and storage

At the LLEIDA BIOMEDICAL RESEARCH INSTITUTE (hereinafter referred to as IRBLLEIDA) we process the information provided to us as an interested party, in order to:

a) Manage your candidacy and participation in the corresponding selection process, including the receipt and assessment of the documentation submitted, the performance of tests or interviews, communication with the candidate and the resolution of the process.

b) Check compliance with the participation requirements and assess the candidate's merits, experience, training and suitability for the job offered.

c) Manage, where appropriate, the formalisation of the employment relationship with the selected person.

d) To deal with possible claims, challenges or responsibilities arising from the selection process.

Legal basis of the processing

The legal basis for the processing necessary to manage the application and participation in the selection process is the application, at the request of the interested party, of pre-contractual measures, in accordance with Article 6.1.b of Regulation (EU) 2016/679, General Data Protection. Where the processing is necessary to comply with legal obligations applicable to IRBLleida, the legal basis shall be compliance with a legal obligation, in accordance with Article 6.1.c of Regulation (EU) 2016/679.

The retention of data to participate in future selection processes will be based on the express consent of the interested party, in accordance with Article 6.1.a of Regulation (EU) 2016/679. The candidate may withdraw this consent at any time, without this affecting the lawfulness of the processing carried out previously.

Data subject to processing

Identification and contact data, academic and professional data, information contained in the curriculum, cover letter and documentation accrediting the requirements and merits, as well as the data generated during the tests, interviews and assessments of the selection process may be processed.

The candidate must provide only the appropriate, relevant and necessary data to participate in the selection process, and must refrain from including particularly sensitive information that is not necessary.

Retention period
Personal data will be kept for the time necessary to manage and resolve the selection process.
Once the process has been completed, the data will be duly blocked for the periods necessary to deal with possible claims, challenges or legal liabilities. After these periods, the data will be deleted.
When the candidate has expressly authorised the storage of their data for future selection processes, they may be kept for a maximum period of twelve months from the end of the process. After this period, the data will be deleted, unless the interested party renews their consent.

Recipients of your data
The data may be accessible by the members of the Selection Committee and by IRBLleida staff who have to intervene in the management of the process, only to the extent necessary to carry out their functions.
Providers who provide services to IRBLleida, such as management services, advice, IT support, data hosting or management of selection platforms, may also have access to the data, when they act as data processors and in accordance with the instructions of IRBLleida.
The data may be communicated to public administrations, judicial bodies or other bodies when there is a legal obligation or is required in the legitimate exercise of their powers.
No data communication to third parties other than those indicated is foreseen, unless they are necessary to comply with a legal obligation.

International transfers
International transfers of personal data outside the European Economic Area are not planned.
In the event that it is necessary to use providers that involve an international transfer of data, this will be carried out with the guarantees required by Regulation (EU) 2016/679 and the interested party will be informed when appropriate.

Automated Decisions
Decisions will not be made based solely on the automated processing of personal data that produce legal effects or significantly affect the candidate.

Mandatory nature of the data
The data identified as mandatory is necessary to manage the application and verify compliance with the requirements of the selection process.
Refusal to provide this data or the submission of incomplete documentation may make it impossible to participate in the process or to properly assess the application.

Authorisation to keep the data for future selection processes is voluntary. Refusal to give this consent will not affect participation in the current call.

Rights of the interested parties

The candidate may exercise the following rights:

- access your personal data;
- request rectification when they are inaccurate or incomplete;
- request its deletion when the data is no longer needed;
- request the limitation of processing in the cases provided for by law;
- oppose the processing where appropriate;
- request data portability when the processing is based on consent or a contractual relationship and is carried out by automated means;
- withdraw the consent given to retain the data for future selection processes.

These rights can be exercised by sending a request to IRBLleida, at Avenida Alcalde Rovira Roure, no. 80, 25198 Lleida, or by email protecciodedades@irblleida.cat.
The application must indicate the right to be exercised and must include the necessary information to prove the identity of the applicant.

Complaint to the supervisory authority

If the interested party considers that the processing of their personal data violates data protection regulations, they may file a complaint with the Catalan Data Protection Authority, without prejudice to any other administrative or judicial remedy that they deem appropriate.

Data accuracy

The candidate guarantees that the data and documentation provided are true, accurate, complete and up-to-date, and undertakes to communicate any modification that occurs during the selection process.
When the candidate provides data of third parties, they must guarantee that they have sufficient legitimacy to communicate them and that the data subjects have been informed of the processing of their data.
