1. Call Opening

1.1. Introduction & Summary

Participation in international research stays offers the opportunity to learn from various experts and to expand skills in a globalised environment. They are essential to advance knowledge and innovation, they promote collaboration between experts and institutions around the world, enhancing the diversity of ideas and access to unique resources, such as specialized facilities.

With the aim of promoting this idea, IRB Lleida and the Territorial Directorate for Research, Innovation and Training publish the first call for International Mobility Grants (AMI-CLINIC) for healthcare staff at Arnau de Vilanova University Hospital (HUAV) and Santa Maria University Hospital (HUSM) which will allow for stays of up to three months in international research centres to clinical-assistance personnel from HUAV and HUSM affiliated to IRB Lleida.

2. Call Description

2.1. Scope

The purpose of this action is the financing of the HUAV and HUSM clinical-assistance staff stays for the learning or improvement of techniques, technologies or procedures in research, development and technological innovation. Improve training in research and innovation aspects of HUAV and HUSM professionals as well as the quality of care provided to our centers.

In order to increase the international exposure of the research staff at our centre and to build a network of international collaboration, these stays must be carried out in research groups from prestigious foreign institutions.

2.2. Funding & Payment

Three grants will be awarded to all participating staff. In the event that any of the grants are left deserted due to the lack of candidates, these grants may be assigned to candidates for the call for International Mobility Grants (AMI-24) by IRB Lleida's pre and post-doctoral research staff who have been prioritised in positions immediately after the last candidate with assigned aid.

The financial endowment of each grant will consist of:

- A travel allowance of 1,000 euros/month or fraction of a month.
- The expenses of the round trip.

- The contracting of medical insurance for countries where the European health card is not valid.

The receipt of these grants will be compatible with the remuneration that, as a salary, the applicant receives.

Once the grant has been awarded, IRBLleida will pay it as follows:

- 75% of the travel bag will be paid once the grant holder confirms the date of their departure.
- The remaining 25% in the middle of your stay.
- Travel expenses will be processed and paid by order that will be made directly by the IRBLleida management office to the travel agencies of the CCS Framework Agreement.
- The insurance will also be processed directly from the IRBLleida management office.

2.3. Duration & Important Dates

The stay will have a minimum duration of 1 month and a maximum of 3 months. Once the grant has been granted, the person will have one year to be accommodated at the chosen centre. This year will begin the day after the final resolution of the mobility grant. In the event that the stay was not carried out over the stipulated time, nor an extension of it was requested, the researcher will be considered to renounce the grant.

An unforgivable extension of a maximum of six months may be requested to carry out the stay. This extension must be requested three months before the end of the period of one year established in the call.
